

European Solidarity Corps Individual Volunteering

Wanted: European Partners

The "Freiwilligendienste in der Diözese Rottenburg-Stuttgart gGmbH" accompanies more than 1.200 volunteers every year in around 1.000 institutions in southern Germany. We offer several Voluntary Services in Germany, like the Voluntary Social and Ecological Year and the Federal Voluntary Service.

We are also part of the European Solidarity Corps, acting as an accredited sending organization for individual volunteering activities, to enable young people from Germany to spend a voluntary year in Europe.

We want to expand our ESC-offer in the field of individual volunteering activities. To this end, we are looking for reliable partners across Europe who are willing to host volunteers from Germany.

Our services for you

- More than 50 years of experience in voluntary services
- Acquisition, placement and preparation of volunteers
- Support in the selection of volunteers
- Joint supervision and organization of the volunteer service
- Full-time contact persons in Germany

Your contribution

- Valid ESC Quality Label
- Accreditation as a host and coordinating organization for the ESC
- Reliable contact persons
- Long-term volunteering activity of 12 months
- Volunteering opportunities: social, ecological and cultural institutions or political education work

Become our partner

Offer young people from Germany the chance to get involved in your country! Together we contribute to a socially diverse Europe and to solidarity across borders.
